A special reminder to all wives and women at Fuller. Do you know there is a class where you can get into the Word and touch other lives? We hope you will want to come to Dr. Ralph Martin's class on Philippians. There will be no Greek, and you don't need to be an academician to take his class. It has been geared especially for you. Time: 7:30-9:30 p.m., Monday nights starting September 29 in the Refectory. Come early at 7:00 p.m. to register. Notice: Men - if there is room you may audit this class for the $10 fee. Please make checks payable to Fuller Theological Seminary.

The Reverend Richard G. Beers from the Overseas Division of the American Baptist Convention, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania will be at Fuller on Tuesday, September 30. Individual conferences are to be scheduled (8:00-11:00) through the Placement Office. A general meeting will be held at 11:00 a.m. in the Geneva Room.

Fuller Seminary Choir with Bruce Leafblad from Lake Avenue as director will have its first rehearsal Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. in Room 301. Preparation will begin immediately on Britten's Ceremony of Carols. Membership is open to everyone.

Pence Sutherland, representative for Christian and Missionary Alliance Overseas Ministries will be on campus the afternoon of October 1 through noon on October 2. All students interested in Alliance missions are welcome to meet with Mr. Sutherland in the back of the Refectory.

FREE LUNCH for all Baptist students, and for those who are interested! Come to get acquainted with one another and with Pasadena's First Baptist Church--at the church's fellowship hall after the morning worship service, Sunday, October 5. The buffet dinner is being provided by two Church School classes (meeting at 9:30 a.m.); the Challenge Class (which includes many Fuller students) and the Crusader's Class (which is taught by a Fuller professor).

Students participating in Field Education expecting to receive 4 units of credit in the Spring must register this week with the Education for Ministry Office.

You are cordially invited to attend Women's Institute's informal get together at the LaCresta House on Thursday evening, October 2, 7:30 p.m. Bring a friend and enjoy a rap session. The informal get-togethers will be held once a month - the first Thursday evening for you.

STUDENTS will be assigned a new mail box on Monday, October 6. Please come by the mailroom Monday, October 6 to pick up your new mail box number and combination. New students may ask for mail and messages each day after 11:00 a.m. Thanks for your cooperation.

Between 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, September 17 and 9:00 a.m. the next morning a revised draft of the bulletin Readings in Racial Prejudice disappeared from Ellen Fuller's office, Room 222. Anyone having knowledge of the whereabouts of this bulletin, please contact Dr. Jewett or the Faculty Secretary. Considerable time and effort will be required to rework the manuscript, and none of the materials are irreplaceable. If it is returned to the Seminary mail room, no questions will be asked.

NEW STUDENTS: Prayer and Bible Study with Roberta Hestenes every Wednesday 12:00-1:00 p.m. in her office, 465 Ford Place. Meetings limited to one hour - bring Bible and lunch. First meeting, October 8 is an informal come get acquainted time.

Hikers! Backpackers! We've a great resource of information between us....let's get together for an organizational meeting! If you are interested in outdoor type activities in the wilderness join us in the Geneva Room on October 8 at 6:00 p.m. For further information see Don Les, 796-1873 or drop a note in mailbox.

RELIGIOUS VALUES CLARIFICATION Workshop led by none other than Sid Simon, perhaps the chief culprit. It's going to be a genuine work-shop involving a variety of experiences for laying out of this very valuable process to identify and clarify what is most important in individual cases. Plan now to attend: Monday, November 10; 9:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., First Baptist Church, Los Angeles. The cost for such an event has been kept to a minimum. Get more information from Roberta Hestenes or Clifford Larson.

Allen and Jean Becker are grateful to the Lord for blessing them with a son, Timothy John, born September 4, weighing 7 lbs. 4 oz. Both mother and baby are fine.

Dr. Dennis Habel, a missionary from Kenya arrived in August to begin doctoral studies in the SWM. While waiting for school to begin, he began working for the SWM helping to find and furnish homes for missionaries and international students. He became ill first with the flu and then viral pneumonia. Soon they began to check for hepatitis. September 21 his problem was diagnosed as leukemia. He is seriously ill in City of Hope Hospital, Duarte. He has a wife and 3 children and we would appreciate your prayers for this family. Cards may be sent, but no visitors.
